SINGAPORE HARBOUR SCHEME.

The following editorial is taken from the Singapore Free Press of 26th ult.:—

Impartial critics of the observations made in this Journal on the faulty harbour scheme— which, as it stands, is not wanted by local merchants or local shippers, but is apparently wanted badly, for possibly some quite extraneous reasons, by Crown Agents, Consulting Engineers and Contractors,—must admit that that scheme has entirely failed to make good a claim to provide what the port needs. The official Mountain had laboured long in particular, but although it may have a strong natural affection for the ridiculous mus of which the honour of paternity is to be ascribed to Mr. Matthews, yet that imposes on the shipping and trading community no need to adopt the deformed brat. H. E. the Governor, with a laudable desire to show "something accomplished, something done" said in his speech in Council that "Singapore goes on deliberating, deliberating, deliberating, and doing nothing." His Excellency does not quite apprehend the exact reality of the position. Singapore has done nothing of the kind. It has deliberated and has decided long ago. For the last ten years Singapore (Mr. Matthews is here merely an undesirable alien in the discussion) has asked for two things, and no more than two things. These are, first and foremost, improvements to the River; second, a shelter for tongkangs and lighters outside, in other words, a boat harbour only. But the Government, (or, perhaps more truly the Downing Street whipper behind the Government), has been leading a deaf ear to this suggestion, which is the repeated result of several Commissions. Instead of straightway granting the above, it has called in a harbour constructional expert, admittedly of high ability ad hoc, who knows nothing at all, much less than the ordinary man along Collyer Quay, about the actual and prospective condition of local trade. It is this gentleman, on no basis but that of a complete inexperience, who wants to tell us that "Whereas are the very things you require," wharves that neither shipowner nor merchant has ever asked for, and doesn't want to-day, from all that can be gathered. With whom then, may it be asked, lies all the fault of this deliberating and waiting? Singapore asks for bread, and they give us a stone.

Again H. E. the Governor asks "If the river is congested and entirely inadequate to deal with the trade, what are we to do?" The answer is simple enough. Extend the river outside by providing the existing Quay, (principally Raffles Quay off Teluk Ayer), with facilities for the unloading and receiving of goods by koties and lighters, and Teluk Ayer will soon be occupied by those traders who can find no more room along the River sides. Such a Boat Quay would meet all purposes for loading and receiving by local vessels, and for shipment by local vessels in the Roads, or to Tanjong Pagar to the home steamers. Some protection works for such a Boat Quay would be desirable, as that would at the same time give a boat harbour but even without protection works a proper Boat Quay there would be of great use. On only a very few days, even in this latter case, would any difficulty arise in handling cargo there. There are some here who yet remember the original A. L. Johnston's pier, afterwards raised to the dignity of a public pier, but originally intended merely to serve the purposes of the old historical firm whose offices stood where now the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank stands. Then there was Gilliland's Pier, Guthrie's Pier, and so forth, the stumps of whose piers are still seen today at low-water. The old sailing ship days are gone, and the Collyer Quay firms are now connected in their chief interests with Tanjong Pagar. But Messrs. Fraser & Neave handle all their shipments over the present Quay off Finlayson Green, and a good many other traders take advantage of the same facility to ship and receive their goods.

But instead of a development of this simple and inexpensive method of providing quite sufficient facilities along Raffles Quay, the Government insists Singapore to accept, or is compelled to ask Singapore to accept, what is a "miniature steamship wharf scheme" that requires the construction of at least one considerable mole, and will thus divide our fine commodious Harbour into two, thus providing a needless obstruction to all local steamers that work by boats. The scheme the Colonial Engineers is reported in the debate to have spoken of as "a scheme that is neither one thing nor the other, and which it would take a long time for the Colony to benefit from." This careful opinion was given after, as a matter of official duty, according the Colonial Secretary's motion for the adoption of the contract submitted to the Council. This latter Official, the Acting Colonial Secretary, said that "Singapore would be the laughing stock of the whole world if it did not accept the proposed scheme after going to such an expense, a tentative preliminary sum of $124,000. But he did not bring out the point that the expenditure was incurred by the Government against the wishes of the community; at least as concerns a great portion of it. The last payment of $20,000 was strongly protested against by the Singapore community. We have, as a Colony, to see how we stand after the great financial problem of the Tanjong Pagar expropriation has been solved. We shall then, but not till then, be able to measure up (as they say) before cutting out our coat, and above all, let us have no glaring misfit, such as that which we are at present being asked, not to try on, but to wear. If this Government is not master in its own house, but has the heavy boot of Colonial Office and Crown Agents behind, let it make the best of a bad job by demanding those extra three feet of water needed to make its scheme workable at all. And even then, it will still be setting up a rival establishment to its other shop at Tanjong Pagar. Which is not good business, and certainly would not be implied in the reasonable improvements that Singapore wants, and has always said that it wants. And there is one little point that the Council ought to be informed of as an element in the whole case: Is the revenue of Tanjong Pagar under the Government Board, what it was under the old Company? If not, why not? And if not, what prospect is there of any real recovery?

THE WOMAN WHO FEELS WELL EATS WELL.

THOSE WHO TAKE DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS BECOME WELL.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured of a violent form of indigestion the young lady whose portrait is given below.—Mlle. Hédine

COULLOUX, of 22, Rue Gondimet, Limoges, France.

"For about eighteen months," she states, "I suffered intensely from weak digestion. I could not digest even the lightest forms of food, and I gradually lost strength. My weakness became so pronounced that after the least exertion I gasped for breath. At last I could eat practically nothing, I lost weight, was nervous, and obtained little sleep. After trying in vain all sorts of remedies, and when in despair of being cured, I was advised by a friend to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did, and after two bottles I was completely cured. I regained a good colour, an excellent appetite, a perfect digestion, and the strength that comes with new blood."

All women, all young girls, desire the good health that makes them attractive. If they are not well they lose their charms, especially if they suffer from bloodlessness or indigestion. The anemic sickly woman carries the traces of suffering in her face. Her complexion is sallow, her eyes sunken with dark circles, while sick headaches and pain after any exertion make her wrinkled and aged. The woman who derives no benefit from food becomes thin and loses her figure. Indigestion is one of the principal causes of insomnia; consequently anemic women who cannot digest food lose strength daily, and at night obtain little or no rest.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure ruined digestions. They impart an appetite, fortify the system and restore lost strength. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills achieve this result by their wonderful action on the blood, which they enrich and renew. Under the influence of this pure, rich blood the vital organs are strengthened. In this way, and by their tonic action on the nerves, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured repeatedly anemia, indigestion, consumption, eczema, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and ladies' ailments. Sold by most dealers (but take care that the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, is on every package) or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Holborne-viaduct, London, post free for 2s. 9d. a bottle, or six bottles for 12s. 9d. SINGAPORE'S NEW PROSPECTS.

In the telegram which we published on Friday, from our Singapore correspondent it was stated that the Governor of the Straits Settlements, Sir John Anderson, has left for England, on important business, it is believed, connected with Colonial Office affairs. In the next sentence it was stated that His Excellency had a long and important conference with Johore officials. The juxtaposition of the two statements is highly significant, when it is remembered that for some years past it has been current talk in Singapore that the British Government intended to assume control of Johore. Nominally the Sultan is a free agent, but that does not mean that his actions would be entirely overlooked by the Singapore Government, and one of the Sultan's errors has been to leave Johore practically undeveloped. Here is a rich hinterland, abounding in fertile lands, with minerals of every sort awaiting the arrival of the developing agent. It has been understood for some time that the Sultan was willing to sell Johore to the British Government for a certain sum, rumour alleging that he wished £35,000 a year and a reversion on capital which would go to his family after his death. So strong have these rumours been that practically everybody in the southern Settlement believed them to be founded on fact, and the continued absence of the Sultan and his sons in England has given colour to these reports. If the Straits Government should become the superiors of Johore Singapore would benefit immensely. Instead of being a mere port, it would have an immense country behind it from which to draw supplies, whereby it would attain the rank of a producing port, the base of an immense area of fertile country. The railway to Burma could be established, rights of development granted, and an era of prosperity ensured for Johore such as the people of that country never dreamt of in the past. Johore has an area of about 9,000 square miles. The population is remarkable in containing a larger proportion of Chinese than natives, viz., Chinese, 150,000, Malays, 35,000, Javanese, 15,000. It will be a wonderful boon which may entirely change the outlook in Singapore if Johore is acquired by the British Government, and that would seem to be the interpretation of Sir John Anderson's hurried departure for England.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE N. C. D. News hears that Chinese have contracted with Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. for the machinery for another large cotton mill for Shanghai.

The Hungtse in Manchuria have recently shown great activity and are reported to have come inside the Great Wall. Germany has increased her garrison at Shanghai-kuan.

The M. M. steamer Touraine, which left Shanghai on the 2nd inst., and arrived at Hongkong to-day, reports that, on the 3rd inst., Captain Leroux, of the French Colonial Artillery died of consumption.

The following is the return of visitors to the City Hall Library and Museum for the week ending the 4th March:—Library Non-Chinese 297, Chinese 127; total 424. Museum, Non-Chinese 157, Chinese 4,441; total 4,598.

While a coolie was on the roof of a house at No. 1, Salt Fish Lane, West Point, at noon yesterday, attending to some work, he slipped through the grating of the roof and fell into the floor below. He sustained some nasty injuries and had to be removed to hospital.

An Indian watchman was prosecuted at the Police Court this morning by Mr. J. J. Andrews for being in the servants' quarters of Messrs. Fenwick and Company, early this morning, without permission. It appeared that defendant was put out the previous night, but was found there again this morning, and given in charge. Mr. F. A. Hazeland imposed a fine of $10.

NINETEEN Japanese high officials have been given English decorations. Marquis Salooji (the Premier), Count Inouye, Mr. Kato, and General Kuroki have all received the G.C.M.G. Messrs. Tanaka, Tokudomi and Okazawa have received the G.C.V.O. Mr. Takahira has been made K.C.V.O.

A CHAIR coolie was this morning charged at the Police Court for stealing a silk handkerchief from a sailor from the U.S.S. Ohio. The sailor did not appear in Court to substantiate the charge. Mr. Melbourne held that the man was guilty of unlawful possession, but the evidence was not sufficient to warrant a charge of larceny. The chair coolie was fined $10.

A COOLIE, who thought he was being "squeezed" by two firewood hawkers yesterday, when he was offered 70 bundles of wood for a dollar instead of 90, picked up a bench and threw it at the hawkers. This challenge resulted in the two hawkers attacking the coolie with the consequence that the trio were arrested. At the Police Court this morning they were fined $3 each.

By kind permission of Admiral Breusing, the Band of the flagship S. M. S. Fürst Bismarck, under Bandmaster Karl Jessien, will play four selections during the concert on Saturday next in aid of the Union Church New Organ Fund. Owing to the large sale of tickets more spacious accommodation has to be provided, and it has been decided to hold the Concert at the City Hall instead of in St. Andrew's Hall.

A FARMER, who arrived in the Colony a few weeks ago on a visit to some friends, and who resided in a house in Connaught Road West, near the Canton steamer's wharf, was removed to hospital on Saturday night suffering from severe injuries caused by falling into the street from the third floor of the building. The unfortunate man succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning.

PROBABLY the Bandmann Opera Company have seldom had so successful a season, in Hongkong at least, than that which is now closing. At each performance there have been crowded houses, and the audiences have been so appreciative that the players have caught the infection of enthusiasm and entered into the spirit of their roles so that every play has gone with vim and verve. Of course, Mr. Harry Cole is the hero of the caste, although the excellent support given by the remainder of the company has contributed to the success of the performances. On Saturday a matinee was given, "Aladdin" being staged in presence of a large audience of youthful hearers who were delighted with the pantomime. In the evening "Charley's Aunt" was staged and went most successfully. To-night there is the "Spring Chicken," and to-morrow night "Veronique." Those who have not yet attended any of the performances should make a point of seeing the Bandmann Opera Company before its departure from Hongkong.

TRAGIC OCCURRENCE AT THE CIRCUS.

HONGKONG GENTLEMAN DROPS DEAD.

A tragic occurrence happened while Spampian's Circus was performing at Causeway Bay on Saturday night and the audience enjoying the performance. A white-haired old gentleman in the stalls suddenly fell forward and expired in a few seconds. It was thought at first that he had fainted, and he was lifted out of the tent, and removed to the ticket-shed by three gentlemen. His wife and son followed quickly, only to discover that the gentleman had expired. The deceased proved to be Mr. I. A. Xavier, about 75 years of age, an old employee of Messrs. Goddard and Douglas, surveyors, Princes Buildings. An ambulance was called and after the performance the deceased—who had died from heart failure—was removed to the Morgue. Hardly one in the audience realised the tragedy that had occurred attributing the sudden attack to a temporary fainting fit. The greatest sympathy will be extended to Mrs. Xavier and family in their terribly sudden and sad bereavement. Deceased had been complaining of illness for some time.

AN ELEPHANT AT LARGE.

AN EXCITING TIME AT CAUSEWAY BAY.

Through the refractory conduct of a circus elephant the excitement which prevailed at the Horse Repository at Causeway Bay on Sunday forenoon when the dust-flee of the Hongkong Cotton-Spinning, Weaving and Dyeing Company took fire, and when the regiment of mafios and cow-boys turned out in readiness to protect the property should their services be required, was enough to move the nerve of anyone. In the afternoon when everything was quiet a photographer arrived and preparation was made to take the picture of a race pony, which, it is stated, is to be sold at no distant date, and the owner, while parting with the noble animal, required a picture of it to remind him that he once possessed a pony of such good looks. The photographer, erected his apparatus in the yard, got ready his slide and the pony was brought out. The owner got hold of the bridle, took up a prominent position and the photographer was about to remove the cap from the lens, when a terrific blowing was heard from behind and pandemonium reigned. The pony broke away, the bystanders found that one of the circus elephants was trotting in their direction with his trunk skywards. They covered the distance to safety quarters in record speed, while the photographer, who was engaged in his work at the time, dodged around, camera under his arm, and finally darted into the office. Before this occurred crowds of natives assembled at the gate watching the elephant. An employee of the firm took the situation in a glance, and although a trifle pale, picked up a stock-whip and got the elephant back to its proper quarters. Afterwards the owner of the pony sallied forth, with the photographer, and the pictures were taken.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING IN HONGKONG.

THE HON. MR. H. E. POLLOCK'S MARRIAGE.

Seldom has a wedding in Hongkong evoked greater interest, confined to no single class in the community, but ranging over the legal, commercial, official and legislative worlds, than that which took place at St. John's Cathedral, this afternoon, when the Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Lena Oakley.

Already, Mr. Pollock was one of the leaders of the Hongkong bar and prima grata in social circles, when he decided to enter the sphere of politics. He had rendered good service to the community or as a member of the Sanitary Board, but essaying a more important role he sought the suffrages of the electors to the Legislative Council, and although his candidature was known at the very last moment, he won the seat, vacated by Sir Paul Chater, by a majority which bore eloquent testimony to the esteem in which he is held by his colleagues and friends in Hongkong. It is too early yet to dream of pronouncing as to Mr. Pollock's special legislative abilities, but he has certainly proved his intention to become watchdog at the Council in the interests of the community in general. In other spheres, also, Mr. Pollock has won the respect and friendship of a very wide section of Hongkong. He has been associated with everything of a leading social and professional character in the Colony, and his urbanity has not been affected by his standing in the professional life of Hongkong, or his universal popularity. It must be peculiarly gratifying to the lady who, this afternoon, became Mrs. Pollock to realise the position occupied by her husband, and to recognise how he is honoured from the Governor downwards. It was an exceedingly graceful act on the part of His Excellency Sir Matthew Nathan to give a reception at Government House to-day in honour of the latest recruit to the Legislative Council and in compliment to Mr. Pollock as a leading citizen in Hongkong; and, what is even more satisfactory, is to note that the cavalier, who is generally present on these occasions to carp at all things, was distinguished by his absence. Indeed, Mr. Pollock, since the announcement of his intended marriage, has been the recipient of all sorts of deserved compliments and now enters the wedded state firmly established in the friendship of the Colony. One of the busiest men in Hongkong, it was laughingly remarked by his friends that they could not understand how he found time to get married, but on the principle that the busiest people have the most time to spare Mr. Pollock found time to-day—although he was in Court this morning—to join in matrimony with a lady who, we trust, will shortly be one of the chief chaperones in Hongkong. We proffer Mr. and Mrs. Pollock long life and prosperity and entire freedom from all the troubles of life.

THE CEREMONY.

It is a long time since St. John's Cathedral presented such a brilliant appearance as that it bore this afternoon, when at 3.30 o'clock the elite of Hongkong assembled to witness the marriage of the Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., and Miss Lena Oakley, the bride having arrived from home in the P. and O. mail s.s. Delta, remaining, since, the guest of Sir Francis and Lady Piggott, at Mountain Lodge. The Cathedral itself had been beautifully and lavishly decorated with palms and potted plants, and all the best in bloom and foliage the local flower market affords. The marriage service was read by the Rev. F. T. Johnson, M.A., Chaplain.

The Church was packed with the numerous friends of the popular bridegroom, who had assembled to witness the ceremony, and the gay dresses of the ladies, intermingled with the brilliant naval and military uniforms made a very bright scene.

The bridegroom, as in duty bound, was the first of the party to arrive, and entered the Cathedral at a quarter before four o'clock, being accompanied by the Hon. Mr. T. Sercombe Smith, Colonial Secretary, who supported him as best man, and they took up their positions at the chancel steps, there to await the coming of the bride, who shortly after the hour entered the Church leaning on the arm of Sir Francis Piggott, Chief Justice, who was to give her away, and who led her to her place beside the bridegroom. His Excellency the Governor, attended by Captain Coleman, entered the Church a few minutes before the bride arrived.

The bride was dressed in a very handsome gown of soft Liberty satin with Court train, intermingled with Honiton lace, and small bunches of orange blossoms, and was covered with a handsomely embroidered veil, surmounted by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet composed of white chrysanthemums, tube roses and maiden hair fern. As bridesmaids she was attended by Misses Duffie and Mabel Dickson, and Eileen Hastings, who wore very pretty frocks of crepe de Chine, trimmed with lace and chiffon, their Leghorn hats being trimmed with white satin ribbon and lace, and each carried a crook, with a bunch of violets encircling the curve and wore handsome gold mounted pearl safety-pin brooches, the gifts of the bridegroom.

As the bride's procession proceeded up the aisle the choir broke forth into the wedding hymn, "The voice that breathed o'er Eden," subsequently rendering "O, perfect love," as the register was being signed, while as the newly married couple passed down the aisle amid the hearty congratulations of all, Mr. Denman Fuller, who presided at the organ, played the stirring strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

THE RECEPTION.

The ceremony over, the party adjourned to Government House, where, through the kindness of His Excellency the Governor, Sir Matthew Nathan, K.C.M.G., the reception was held. It was very largely attended, and His Excellency the Governor, proposed the "Health of the Bride and Bridegroom," which having been duly honoured, the bridegroom replied, returning thanks on his own and his wife's behalf in a few well-chosen words, and proposing the healths of the little bridesmaids, to which Hon. Mr. Sercombe Smith replied. Afterwards, amid a shower of rice and confetti the Hon. Mr. H. E. and Mrs. Pollock left for their residence, "Bourington," the Peak, where the first part of the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride's going-away dress was white cloth, sailor-made, with which she wore a Marten stole, and a green picture-hat trimmed with shaded ostrich plumes. The second stage of the honeymoon will be spent at Taipo, whither Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Pollock proceed on Wednesday, at the residence of Mr. L. Gibbs, kindly placed at their disposal by that gentleman. The presents were most numerous, handsome and costly, and came in from all sides—from individuals, from couples, from bodies corporate, from clubs and societies, and a very large number had been brought out from the homeland by the bride, from numerous friends at home, while some are yet on their way to the Colony.

Those present at the reception at Government House were: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dadeley, Mr. J. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey, Hon. Captain, Mrs. and Miss Barnes-Lawrence, Mr. C. E. H. Beavis, Dr. and Mrs. Bell, Sir Henry, Lady and the Misses Berkeley, Mr. F. B. L. and Miss Bowley, Hon. Mr. A. W. and Mrs. Brewin, Mr. A. Bryer, Mr. H. T. Butterworth, Hon. Mr. W. Mrs. and Miss Chatham, Mr. H. G. Calthrop, Major and Mrs. Chichester, Hon. Dr. and Mrs. Francis Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cruickshank, Mr. W. J. Daniel, Colonel Darling, R.E., Hon. Mr. C. W. and Mrs. Dickson, Mr. C. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Trenchard Davis, Messrs. W. B. Deacon, C. Ewins, A. G. M. Fletcher, Captain Gale, A.P.D., Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gedge, Mr. and Mrs. Grace, Mr. L. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Tooker, Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. G. T. Veitch, Signor Volpicelli, Major and Mrs. Watkins, Mr. Justice A. G. and Mrs. Wise, Commodore and Mrs. Williams, Miss Wilkinson, Messrs. A. G. Wood, Wei On, Hon. Mr. Wei Yuk, Mrs. and Miss Wakefield, Lieut. Wilkinson, R.N., Lieutenant and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Seith, Mr. G. Robinson, Captain and Mrs. Vereker, Major and Mrs. Kelall.

FIRE AT THE COTTON MILLS.

Volumes of smoke issuing from the Cotton Mills premises, hundreds of coolies looking in that direction, Kennedy's mafios, captained by the genial manager, with buckets in their hands, on the qui vive, in case a spark should be blown their way, made matters rather exciting at Causeway Bay yesterday morning. Fire had broken out at the Cotton Mills, and to make matters worse rumours went the rounds that the cotton godowns were ablaze. In consequence of the large crowd that had mustered outside the Cotton Mills, the gates were barred. When all the commotion had subsided, the fire engine came dashing down, but its services were not required as the employees of the Mills, with their fire appliances, had extinguished the blaze. It appeared that the dust flue of the Mills had suddenly taken fire and, after some minutes' work, was subdued.

CHINA AND MANILA STEAMSHIP CO.'S REPORT.

From the report of the above Company, for presentation to the shareholders at the twenty-third ordinary general meeting to be held at the office of the general managers, on Wednesday, 14th March, it appears that the net profit is $46,563.45, which it is proposed to appropriate as follows, viz.:—To place to reserve fund, $1,000; to pay a dividend of $1.50 per share, $39,000; and to carry forward to next year's account, $6,563.45. It is stated that during the year, cargo was scarce and freights ruled low, but expenses were reduced in every way possible, with the result that the profit on working account is a few thousand dollars better than that of last year.

THE WEATHER.

The following report is from Mr. F. G. Figg, First Assistant of the Hongkong Observatory:—On the 5th at 5p. The barometer has fallen in W. Japan, and risen over E. Japan, N. China and the Philippines. The anticyclone is laying over Central China, and a depression, which passed over N. China yesterday, appears to be moving Eastwards in the W. part of the Sea of Japan. Strong monsoon is indicated in the Formosa Channel and the China Sea. Forecast:—moderate N. winds, fine.

NANCHANG MASSACRE.

FRENCH AUTHORITIES' DEMANDS.

DISMISSAL OF GOVERNOR AND LARGE INDEMNITY WANTED.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Shanghai, 5th March, 2.10 p.m.

The French authorities have assumed control of the questions involved by the massacre at Nanchang.

They demand that the governor of Kiangsi, Hu Ting-kan, should be summarily dismissed, on account of his alleged complicity in the affair.

A large indemnity is also demanded.

[According to the account of the massacre which was published in the Sinwenpao the district magistrate was conferring with the French priests under the instructions of Governor Hu Ting-kan of Kiangsi when the tragedy occurred.—Ed., H.K.T.]

THE HANKOW RAILWAY.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Canton, March 2nd, 1906

I wrote three days ago that there was little being said about the dispute between the Viceroy and the gentry regarding the building of the railway. There is little change in the situation. There is no doubt the gentry and many others are giving the question serious thought. Yesterday was the day for receiving the first payment on the railway shares. A large sum of money was taken in. The people interested and the gentry are persistent in maintaining that the money will not be handed over to the officials. The officials are quiet and say the Government will build the road. A well-informed man told me to-day that it was probable that the Government would let the building by contract to responsible parties. This would be a good solution of the difficulty. The Government would still superintend the work and the people would build the road.

SPAMPAN'S CIRCUS.

MARVELOUS FEATS.

Spampian's Circus opened for the first time in Hongkong at Causeway Bay on Saturday night before a fairly good audience. The programme was opened by Mr. Spampian introducing the pony Piccolo, whose performance was greatly applauded. Mr. Lou's funniness, with four coolies in the ring, created some merriment among the native classes; the "kings" of the three horizontal bars, Messrs. E. C. Milton and Low were among the best features of the evening's entertainment, while Miss Annie Watson, doing a twenty feet leap on a bicycle weighing 175 lbs., created great applause. It was really a capital feat which deserves the highest praise. It is stated that Miss Annie is the only lady artiste in the world who goes through such an exciting turn and we can well believe it. At any rate Saturday's exhibition of nerve and tenacity secured the enthusiastic plaudits of the audience, some staring in breathless amazement at the thrilling act. There was a fifteen minutes' interval, when the Messrs. Watson and Miss Annie Watson gave a fine display of looping the circle with bicycles and motors, a performance which was exceedingly well received by the audience. The jockey act was perhaps the least successful of any, but that may be due to our experience of jockeys. Miss Mary Rose came out with her performing dogs, who went through their respective parts well, while the little terrier who threw back somersaults was one of the heroes of the evening. The Continental clown "Ninny" and the cake-walk, which was gone through by several members of the troupe, over the event of the night, in which Mr. Schnad was to enter the lions' den, started. The tamer entered the cage and put the beasts through their part of the programme, after which he was followed by Miss Margherite, who took up the whip and sent them through hoops of fire. Altogether the show will be appreciated by the youngsters. The elephants are a lively lot, and the lions roar with due ferocity. There is to be a matinee on Wednesday afternoon, at which there will, no doubt, be a large attendance. It should be noted that special cars are being run every evening to the Circus.

CONCERT AT KOWLOON.

A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCE.

On Saturday evening, a most successful concert was given in the Kowloon Institute, by Mr. J. J. Inokay. Theatre and circus combined did not affect the good attendance and a highly appreciative audience filled the concert-room. The band of the 11th Infantry played selections during the evening. Mrs. Jordan's voice, as usual, charmed her hearers, and as she is a most sympathetic accompanist she was greatly in demand. Mrs. Jack sang "When nobody's nigh to hear" in a most delightful manner. Mr. Cotter was in fine voice and "Queen of my heart" has seldom been rendered in better form. An encore was insisted on and was loudly applauded. Again the quaint music of the balalaika was heard and its charm was enhanced by the sweet tones of the mandolin. Messrs. Inokay and Brewer and the Misses Chunnett are to be congratulated on their very pretty contribution to the evening's entertainment. Miss G. King is no mean performer on the piano, and on Saturday evening her solo was received with decided appreciation. The comic songs and dance of Messrs. Miller and Webster were encored and they appeared again. The second part of the programme consisted of a laughable sketch called "Freezing a Mother-in-law." Certainly, this more than compensated for two disappointments in the first part of the programme. Dr. Netherland as the henpecked husband kept the house highly amused and Mrs. Tuxford as his bullying wife acted her part to the life. Mr. Inokay as the hare-brained nephew was very good and Mr. J. J. Inokay as the lover of the daughter of the house, was inimitable. Miss Chunnett, as the disconsolate young lady, was interesting and when their love-scenes were on one noted the number of bachelors in the audience. Mr. J. J. Inokay was certainly a fine teacher in the art of love-making and this the audience realised, for distinct "encores" were heard after a kissing episode. The funds of the Institute will be decidedly improved by the proceeds of the concert, so ably managed by Mr. J. J. Inokay.

OVERCROWING IN HONGKONG.

QUESTIONS FOR THE SANITARY BOARD.

At a meeting of the Sanitary Board tomorrow Mr. Hooper will ask the following questions:

Whether steps have been taken to ascertain if there is any contravention of section 47 of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance in the City of Victoria.

If there is such contravention, in which parts of the City does overcrowding exist?

Why have the remedies prescribed by the Ordinance not been applied to prohibit such overcrowding?

Whether the necessary orders will be given to enforce the Ordinance in this respect? If not, why not?

Whether the bye-laws on overcrowding in schedule D of the Ordinance have been carried out, and if so, within what limits?

THE NANCHANG TRAGEDY.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Following so soon after the tragedy at Lien-chau, the news received by telegram yesterday afternoon, says the N. C. D. News of Feb. 27th, of the murder of several missionaries, Catholic and Protestant, at Nanchang, the capital of Kiangsi, came as a great shock. Nanchang formerly had the reputation of being a very anti-foreign city, missionaries having had narrow escapes from being killed there, but lately things seemed to be going on very quietly. The city, a wealthy and populous one, is situated about sixty miles up the River Kan which flows into the Juyang Lake. The victims in the present massacre are Mr. and Mrs. Kingham, of the Bethel Mission of North-west Kiangsi, and six Roman Catholic priests. At first it was reported that Mr. and Mrs. Kingham's two children had also been killed, but we are glad to learn that both have been saved; the elder one, however, was wounded, whether seriously or not is not mentioned. The children with Miss Nellie Wang, of the same Mission, and probably other missionaries also are being escorted to Kiukiang in the Governor's launch.

The premises of the Bethel Mission, which were close to those of the Roman Catholic Mission, have been destroyed as have the fine cathedral and school of the Catholics. The buildings, however, of the other Missions at work in the city (the American Methodist Episcopal and the China Inland Mission) are untouched.

The massacre, which took place last Sunday, appears to be the direct outcome of the extraordinary incident already reported by us of the alleged stabbing of a Chinese official by a Roman Catholic priest. On the 22nd instant the Nanchang hien magistrate was invited by the Roman Catholic priest Lacruce (Wang) to take supper with him, in order that they might discuss a long-standing dispute concerning which the Catholics claimed a large indemnity. It seems to be certain, that during the feast the priest Wang presented a document to the magistrate, who was to make himself responsible for the payment of some thousands of taels. On his refusing to sign, a fracas occurred, and it is in connection with what immediately happened that the reports are so conflicting. In our telegraph column we have found our own correspondent's version, which reads incredibly enough, but hardly more incredibly than the version of the Catholics themselves which appears below.

The saddest feature of the whole sad affair is that the Protestant missionaries, who were in no way concerned in the quarrel, have suffered so cruelly. A letter received in Shanghai yesterday written from Nanchang on Thursday, the very day of the disaster, says, "The massacre of the general quiet of the city, and proves with what awful suddenness the whole affair arose."

Independent reports received in Shanghai yesterday state that the gates of the city are now closed, no one being admitted or allowed to leave. But our correspondent at Nanchang says nothing of this. The American authorities here have already taken action and the gunboat Elcano (Captain Train) left for Nanchang last night, while H.M. sloop Clive and gunboat Teal are believed to be at or near Kiukiang.

THE CATHOLIC ACCOUNT.

The following is a translation of an account which is derived from French sources and will appear in this morning's Echo de Chine:

Following the events in Shanghai, those of Nanchang, which we have to record, will give an exact measure of the state of trouble and general uneasiness which is actually ruling in China. For two or three days grave rumours have circulated in the Settlement on the subject of the massacre of missionaries in Kiangsi. Telegrams from Nanchang to the native Press of Shanghai on Saturday last contained the sensational story that the subprefect of that city, invited to dinner by one of the Catholic missionaries, Mr. Lacruce, was killed by the latter. Other journals even went so far as to accuse either more or less than that the Catholic Bishop himself had committed this murder.

The affair received yesterday a tragic dénouement, from which there is no room to doubt that six Catholic missionaries, and one English missionary, with his wife and children, the latter by a counter-attack, have been massacred. Our mission, its church, and the French school have been destroyed and pillaged.

The information, which we have received from the best sources, differs very much from that which has appeared up till now, above all in the Chinese Press. The telegrams that the unfortunate missionaries had yet time to send to their superiors during the 23rd inst. make it known that, invited to a dinner at the mission to settle amicably certain matters in dispute, the subprefect, doubtless in fear that he would not be able to settle it in the way wished by the Chinese authorities, and would thus lose face with his superiors, committed suicide by cutting his throat. On his part the Governor declares that, having been invited to dinner at the mission and in the course of the discussion which took place for the adjustment of the affairs of Tangpou and of Chekiang, the subprefect was wounded by a knife, and that, overcoming his pain, he had written with his own hand that there had been no alternative before him except suicide, and that, moreover, the people of the mission had struck him.

Immediately on the suicide at the mission, the people, as excited as those who are acquainted with Chinese manners can imagine, accused the missionaries of having killed the subprefect, and it was this view that found expression in the telegrams addressed to the Chinese journals of Shanghai by their correspondents at Nanchang. On Sunday about 2 a.m. under the influence of the rumours spread in the city, the crowd flung themselves on the mission, where they delivered over to massacre the missionaries and the professing brothers, and destroyed the building indicated above.

The Sisters of Charity and three Fathers named Salvetti, Rossignol, and Martin were able to save themselves and escape to Kiukiang.

The Governor of Nanchang, who had promised the Waipou to assure the defence of the mission, allowed himself to be swayed by the mob.

From all this, the murder of the English missionary, and of all his family, is absolutely incomprehensible.

Such is the sad history from which there is reason to fear serious consequences in the near future. The missionary and the subprefect, who were the protagonists in this act, are dead, and it will be difficult to drag this affair over into the light. That the subprefect committed suicide is recognised, however, by the authorities, and that fact allows us to admit as well-founded the account the missionaries have sent to their superiors.

THE NATIVE ACCOUNT.

The Sinwupao yesterday states that the district magistrate of Nanchang, Chang Chao-tang, was conferring with the French Roman Catholic priests under instructions of Governor Hu Ting-kan of Kiangsi, when he was assaulted and wounded by three Roman Catholic priests of one of whom the Chinese name was Wang Kuo-an. The priests wished to compel the magistrate to sign his consent to three of their demands, viz.: (1) the payment of heavy indemnity for some previous riot; (2) the degradation or cashiering of certain members of the Nanchang gentry hostile to the Roman Catholics; and (3) the release of certain converts who were in confinement for being concerned in breaking the law. These demands the magistrate firmly resisted even when threatened with injury by the priests, who finally killed the official for refusing to be coerced. The same paper further states that the conduct of the priests was generally deprecated by the converts of Nanchang, and that Governor Hu Ting-kan sent four hundred troops to guard the mission premises, in the first place to prevent the populace from trying to get revenge on the Roman Catholics for the death of the magistrate, and on the other hand to prevent the escape of the priests charged with killing that official. Finally, in commenting upon a report circulating amongst the Roman Catholic converts here that "probably magistrate Chang Chao-tang, seeing that he could not get what he wanted, had stabbed himself in his anger," the Sinwupao declares that such a statement is absurd on the face of it, as it was ridiculous that the magistrate could have gone armed with a knife to the dinner, since such instruments are conspicuous by their absence in any Chinese banquet.

In Bankruptcy Jurisdiction this morning, His Honour Mr. A. G. Wise, Puisne Judge, presiding, the public examination of the first bankrupt in the matter of Chan Sau Shek and Leung Wai Tong, ex parte the creditors, was continued by Mr. G. H. Wakeman, Official Receiver; Mr. P. W. Goldring of Messrs. Brutton, Hett and Goldring, and Mr. F. B. L. Bowley, Messrs. Dennys and Bowley, Crown solicitors, appearing on behalf of several of the creditors. Mr. F. d'Almeida e Castro represented the debtors.

Witness spoke as to the fire which had damaged so much of his property.

The cross-examination was then taken up by Mr. Goldring: Now, I put it to you there was nothing on the premises in the Des Vaux Road shop at all when that fire occurred? Debtor: I took over the Fuk Loong shop and there was some stock in it, as well as half of the stock in the shop we were vacating had been removed there.

Leung Wai Tong, the other partner, was then called and sworn: He said he succeeded his father in the Kwong Fuk Leung firm. His father left no other property. Witness did not take any active part in the management of the Kwong Fuk Leung business, he lived all the time at Canton. His father did not tell him the value of his share in the business, so therefore he had no idea what it was worth. Since he had inherited his share he had drawn about $5,000 from the firm.

Mr. Wakeman: But it is on record that you have overdrawn $5,300?—Yes, that is so.

By Mr. Goldring: Do you mean to say you only drew $5,300 from the firm in six years?—Yes.

Now, be careful, please. Do you mean to tell us seriously that you only drew $5,000 in six years?—Well, I don't know, but my accountant told me so; all the money I drew I took to Canton to pay my family expenses.

Not to invest in other business?—No. You told us you invested money in the Kwong On Cheung firm?—Not the money drawn from the Kwong Fuk Leung firm.

Then where did you get money?—That was my wife's money.

Mr. Bowley: I suppose you look upon Hongkong as a gold mine on which you can always draw, but to which you never have to bring any gold back?—Well, you see when I find I have no more money to pay family expenses I can come down here to draw money.

According to your own account you are little better than an idiot?—I don't know.

Leung Chiu, the accountant, said he had been accountant in the Kwong Fuk Leung firm since he was a boy; he was now 54 years of age, and had been in business 40 years.

He did not remember whether the balance-sheet for the year before last showed a profit or loss.

Mr. Bowley: What, you don't remember such an important matter as that? Did you make a profit of a million or a loss of half?—Well, owing to my age my memory is not good and I don't remember.

The adjudication order was then made as prayed, the Official Receiver to be trustee in the matter.

A MORRISON MEMORIAL.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, 2nd March, 1906.

Next year will be the centenary of Protestant missions in China. It was in 1837 that Robert Morrison landed in China. Morrison celebrations will be numerous next year. Canton should take a lead in any movement to commemorate the beginning of Protestant mission work in China. At the meeting to-day Mr. Pearce outlined a plan for a Memorial Hall for Canton, to commemorate the arrival of Robert Morrison in Canton. It was suggested that a large building might be built which would serve as a Bible institute, provide a library and museum and public lecture hall. There is no doubt that such a building would be a great benefit to Canton and there is no good reason why this thing should not be done. It is understood that the Y.M.C.A. will enter heartily into the proposal, and with all the missions united and joined by the Y.M.C.A. the undertaking should not be a difficult one. The Canton Missionary Conference will take the matter up at its next meeting.
